

It is my understanding that the FCC is considering to preempt the Indiana State law that protects me and my family from the unwanted calls from telemarketing people. This is the best thing that Indiana has done for it's people. I think you guys need to look at what you are about to do. You need to help the people not harm us.